For the Sentine! THEATRICAL PERFORMANCE AT TIPPECANOE.

Mr Editor: Are we to understand from the programme in your paper this morning, that in the theatrical performance at Tippecanoe, Messrs. lican star and stock performers? SELF RESPECT.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 20, 1865.

We published yesterday, just as it was sent us, the notice of a Fourth of July celebration to take place at the Tippecanoe Battle Ground, in which the names of many Democrats appeared tion which the Radicals thought they controlled in the sub-committees of arrangements for the va. | Circumstances alter cases very materially, as late rious Congressional Districts. We presume not | events demonstrate. one of the Democrate named in the list had any knowledge whatever in advances of the distin quished bonor conferred upon him; but strange to say, a committee composed of Republicans. did not think it inconsistent to invite Democrate, and some of them " Sons of Liberty," to par ticipate with them in celebrating the coming anniversary of American Independence. This feature in the affair "Self Respect" did not see or comprehend, notwithstanding its significance.

It appears, however, from the communication at the head of this article, that a gentleman claiming to be a Democrat, the strictest of the sect, and who has been highly honored by the Democratic party, takes exception to the invitation, under the circumstances we have named, follows: and inquires, indignantly, if the Democrats who have been placed on the said committees " are to act the part of supes and waiters to the Republican star and stock performers," and insists upon the publication of his communication, which demands a brief reply.

In the Sentinel of November 10th, 1863, there appeared a communication from the gentlema who signs himself "Self Respect," in which oc curred the following declaration:

" I am, then, gentlemen, as I have been, most tration, believing it to be controlled by radical the United States Republicans; but I am for continuing to give a fuir and efficient support to the vigorous prosecution of the war, as prosecuted

We cannot assent to this doctrine. It would establish the most terrific despotism the world has ever witnessed.

On the 12th day of July, 1864, "Self Respect" accepted a nomination for a high office, upon the following platform:

A FEW PERTINENT INQUIRIES.

A large number of Republicans are exceed ingly anxious to ascertain the position of the Iudisas State Journal upon the following points: 1. Does it intend to sustain the Administration of President Jonsson heartily and fully?

President reorganizing State Governments in North Carolina and Mississippi?

3. Is it in favor of negro suffrage? does the Journal intend to straddle the fence spon these issues until it ascertains which division of its party is the strongest? That seems to port so long as he adheres to them. This is all be its game at the present time, but it must soon take a position upon the inquiries we have put it, or else it will be left out in the cold.

The Court of Appeals of Kentucky has de cided that the law making "greenbacks" a legal tender is unconstitutional. The opinion is long. but able. To show its drift, we quote from it the following extracts: "From the foregoing, as well as the contemporaneous history, it is clear the people, in adopting the Constitution, intended, with singular unanimity, to withhold from Congress, as well as from their own State Legislatures, the MT. power to issue "paper money," or make any thing else than coined money a legal tender, and the face of the Constitution impels to the same

"The power "to coin money" is the only money-making power delegated to Congress; without express grant, Congres could have no power whatever over money The grant made s specific, and to go beyond it would defeat the evident purpose of the people in only giving the power to coin; and this is the more clear when they inhibit the States from making anything else than this coined money a legal tender. They took from their Legislatures the right to coin and fix the value and gave it exclusively to Congress. They gave Congress no power over tender at all, and restricted the States to the mak. MASONIC HALL ing of the gold and silver coin a legal tender That repunciation of their absolute power and reservation of "qualified" power over tender is itself and alone sufficient proof of a constructive and purposed denial to Congress of any power over it; for as such power in Congress would necessarily be exclusive and paramount, the exercise of it would supersede or control all State powers over tender, and therefore the qualified superfluous, idle and incosistent. But that bition, as qualified, is an acknowledgment of the power of the States, and the only object of it was to limit that restrained power so as to only money permitted to be made a tender in the United States. Consequently the people of the States by retaining power over tender and granting none to Congress, constructively denied to Congress any implied power on that subject.

"If they intended to give Congress more power over money, why did they not so express it? They were defining what Congress might do. and what the States should not do, in relation to money-proving they intended nothing but coin to be the standard of value or the subject of AGENTS The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery.

> The following is an extract from a letter written by the Rev. E. Z. Weiser, to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Pa.:

> > A BENEFACTRESS.

There is a woman in the public eye whose name had all along been associated, ip our mind, with the "Yankee," Quack," and "Humbug." But it is so no longer, and we desire to wrest her name from all such suspicious associations in all other minds. Whatever notions we may have of womanly delicacy and propriety, we will Nurs — the best Nurse. Whether we shall have Female Physicians or not, is a question which must be decided by time and principle. all admit that woman alone is the Nurseby time and principle, and not a matter of taste. Pride, prejudice, caprice and custom may as well behave themselves, for if there is really a want, there will also be a supply; if there be a "calling" there will be a coming.

Nature and heman society are always self-supplying,
and though Art and Fashion may hinder, they cannot

Mrs. Winslow does not wish to treat you gentlemen Nor does she prescribe a regimen for your wives; but he modestly appears as a messenger of health and hap-plness to your infants in the cradle is there anything improper in that? A Nurse of "30 years" experience can boldly say what is or is not good for a babe, and ought to be listened to. God sreed her on her humble and happy mission. She is the most successful physician and most effectual benefactress our little ones ever enjoyed—her doting parents not excepted. Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach eur "Susy" to say "A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow"—for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking and teething siege. We confirm every word set forth in the prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less—Away with your "Cordial,"
"Parogoric," "Drops," "Laudanum," and every other
"Narcotic," by which the babels drugged into stapidity, and rendered dull and idiotic for life.

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Southing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical savier to the infant race.

> MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children eething, softens the gams, reduces inflammation, al lays all pain, and cures wind cholic. Perfectly safe in all cases. We would say to every mother who has a suffering child, do not let your prejudice, nor the preju-dices of others, stand between you and your suffering child and the relief that will be sure-yes, absolutely sure-to follow the use of this medicine if timely used.

"We see an advertisement in your columns of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. Now, we never said a word in favor of a patent medicine before in our life, but we feel compelled to say to your readers that this is no humbing we have tried it, and know it to be all it claims. It is probably one of the most successful medicines of the day, because it is one of the best. And those of your readers who have babies can't do better than lay in a supply."
